

PRACTICING CASES & NOUN FORMS

Directions: Identify the case into which the bolded word or phrases should go. Then translate the bolded word or phrases into Greek, using the definite article if the word “the” is included, and using the correct number, gender, and case for that word.

1. The cyclops ate the men.
  - a. Case?
  - b. Number?
  - c. Nominative form of the word?
  - d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

2. I do not want to obey the law.
  - a. Case?
  - b. Number?
  - c. Nominative form of the word?
  - d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

3. I am delivering cookies to the Senate.
  - a. Case?
  - b. Number?
  - c. Nominative form of the word?
  - d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

4. This is the wealth of a friend.
  - a. Case?
  - b. Number?
  - c. Nominative form of the word?
  - d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

5. Guest-friend, come on inside and enjoy a nice bath, a hearty meal, and a good cry.
  - a. Case?
  - b. Number?
  - c. Nominative form of the word?
  - d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

6. The degree of excellence is outstanding.
  - a. Case?
  - b. Number?
  - c. Nominative form of the word?
  - d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

7. The gifts of the gods are plentiful.
  - a. Case?
  - b. Number?
  - c. Nominative form of the word?
  - d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

8. Words of the wars were written.

- a. Case?
- b. Number?
- c. Nominative form of the word?
- d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

9. He led the souls through the underworld.

- a. Case?
- b. Number?
- c. Nominative form of the word?
- d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?

10. The little child/young slave had many clever thoughts.

- a. Case?
- b. Number?
- c. Nominative form of the word?
- d. Declined form to fit the syntax of this sentence?